ONE LIFE

By Walter Rinder
From 'This Time Called Life'
Celestial Arts Publishing

There are countless paths of knowledge There are many ways to give There are endless hopes to dream of There is only one life for us to live

Don't waste your time in sorrow jealousy or pain pity envy depression or things that are the same

Every year that we get older more often you hear people say I wished I would have, I should have done
I just wasted another day .

TO THE SENIORS

Another year goes passing by Another May Festival is here
To some this brings a joyous smile
To others brings a tear

For four years you have tread a path
From dawn to setting sun
But now the path gets steep
And the climb is just begun

We're very glad to know you We'll miss you when you've gone
And to the Class of '75
We dedicate this poem

The Juniors

. . . and nothing now is left but majestic memories

How come all the girls at Oakview school referred to Diane Stedham as "Fuzz Top"? . . . Dee Sturdivant played football once and her wrap around skirt unwrapped. . . Mr. Norberg sent David Weinke out in the hall one day but Dave went a little too far, out the door and on his way home. . . Nancy Crank-- Every day at recess you would have somebody ask Toby Muck if he liked you. Were you too embarrassed to ask yourself? . . . Laura Jungmeyer--do you remember walking in your sleep at Mayfield? . . . The boys at Matyfeild sure got excited when they discovered the broken window in the girls shower room, and the girls really got excited when they saw a hand through the window. . . How about the time when Gail Holt and Shawn Aho undressed and put their pants on in Mr. Tinkhams class--in front of the whole class of General Music. . . Why did they call Dan Shea, Dale Stimmel, and Tim McCarthy the Three Stooges? . . . Tana Longabaugh--remember when you walked out into the hall with only your slip and nylons on and Leo Goodwin asked you if you forgot something? . . .

I, Mark Fagerness, being of sound mind and body, hereby will to Ron Smith one bottle of sunburn ointment, and one large megaphone so he can be heard.

We the jocks of the Senior class will to the jocks of the Junior class the Senior Deck.

I, Diane O'Neill, do hereby will Clyde Moore my place in 4th year Spanish. And if he happens to make it to Mexico some day, I will him my bottle of Kaopectate.

I, Deb Widell, will to my sister Donna, all my Peppers crepe paper and other such junk so that she can plaster it all over some unsuspecting athlete's locker.

I, Dave Chandler, do hereby will George Sweetingham and Larry Buck the ability to survive and work with the talents and the temperments of their future art and photography movie, especially if making a movie.

VARSITY FOOTBALL "74"

The 1974 Tigers saw a year of total rebuilding. Through last spring's graduation, they lost every starter on offense and defense. The young and inexperienced Tigers were picked to lose all their games. However, they achieved victories over Tumwater, Elma, and rival Chehalis, and nearly knocked off several other league opponents. Four Tigers were elected to this year's all-conference teams. They included juniors Doug Myhr, Ken Powell, Mark Miller, and Clyde Moore.

FROSH PEP STAFF

This year's Frosh Pep Staff activities ranged from fights to corsages. The year started out somewhat drab with Cheryl Kline burning a hole in her tights, and having to cut them off. These girls practiced every day third period, coming up with two routines and forty chants for each event. Some people might think that being on the rally squad is a relatively safe activity, but just ask the girls about the fans at the Elma basketball game.

At the start of the season Coach Jim Sines looked forward to a much improved golf team over last year's record and a dismal one-stroke failure to qualify for the district tournament. He had four returning letterman, Seniors Dan 'The Man' Dulin and Gregg 'King' Solomon, and Juniors Greg 'Mooch' Mohoric and Larry Johnston. Also in the picture was Sophomore Dave Butkus, son of the former golfing ace Jim Butkus. David barely missed earning his letter last year as a freshman. Coach Sines said, "A lot of good hard practice and we'll not only qualify for the district tournament, WE'LL GO TO STATE!"

He placed first at sub-regions, second at regionals, and third at state. Other high scorers were Dan Firebaugh and Ken Victory, seniors, and Eric Bennett, junior. GOOD JOB FELLOWS.

The Centralia Tiger varsity tennis squad underwent a building a season during the 1974-75 school year. With the loss of six seniors from the previous season's team, the netters were short on experience but optimism was high. An early season's victory over Tumwater was hopefully an auspicious portent of further wins, especially since three freshman were in the starting rotation. Dan Holman, junior, held down first singles, position; Dennis Murry, sophomore, second; and Drake Nicholson, senior, third. The doubles squad, included Tom Alderson, senior, with Brad Bodine, freshman, and Ed Kelly with Tim Holman, both freshman.

In 1975 the boys track and field team gained much needed experience, building towards a bright future. The athletes lost from the class of 1974 cut deep into the ranks of this years squad. However, a good number of freshmen turned out showing much improvement and great promise for future success. Lee Neuman, Randy Oster, Vern Treat, and Ray Yocum lettered as freshmen this year. Five other freshmen competed regularly in varsity action. The most improved athlete voted by the coaches and team members was senior Kevin Eastman for his effort in the weight events, especially the discus throw. Senior hurdler Kevin Durgin was the most valuable athlete and was also voted team captain by his teammates.

The annual staff wishes to express it's gratitude to Al Fenske of Everden's Photography for taking the group pictures used in the "Clubs" section of our annual.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm weather I was used to. The air felt like a blanket, but in a different way. I had heard that the climate was perfect, but I didn't realize it would be so different. The sun was out, but it felt like it was hiding behind a veil. The trees were green, but they looked like they were made of paper. It was a strange feeling, like I was in a dream.

2. The second thing I noticed was the smell. It was a mix of everything I had heard about. The air smelled like a combination of everything I had heard about. The air smelled like a combination
